

FIG. 3. Fourier coefficients y_1 as a function of normalized rapidity, y' . The closed symbols are direct measurements and the open symbols are generated by reflection about midrapidity. The labeled transverse momentum gates are in units of GeV/c. Histograms are transport model calculations, as labeled at the top of each column, and each column of four panels shows identical measurements.